

USNF Ranking Regulations

Section I General Rules

- Article 1 Instructor titles (Shogo) are awarded by the President of the All Japan Naginata Federation (AJNF) according to the Ranking Regulations of the AJNF (Appendix A is a translation of the Shogo section of these AJNF regulations). USNF recommendations for Shogo are submitted to the AJNF thru the INF.
- Article 2 Dan ranks are awarded by the President of the AJNF according to the Ranking Regulations of the INF. Appendix B contains the USNF Regulation for Dan Board Composition. Appendix B supercedes the INF Regulation (June 26, 2003) for only those requirements listed. USNF requests for Dan certifications are made by the USNF President to the INF who requests certification from the AJNF.
- Article 3 Kyu ranks are awarded by the USNF President according to these regulations. These USNF Regulations supercede the INF regulations for Dan testing.
- Article 4 Candidates for examination must be members of the USNF, or be members of other Naginata federations recognized by the International Naginata Federation (INF). Non-USNF members must provide the USNF with written permission from their Naginata federation prior to participation in a USNF examination.
- Article 5 All examiners must be members in good standing of the USNF, unless a specific exemption is granted by the President of the USNF for a particular examination.
- Article 6 The President of the USNF authorizes all Kyu and Dan Promotional Examinations. Typically, Kyu and Dan Promotional Examinations are held at the national level twice a year: at the annual General Meeting and at the Annual Seminar. USNF Regional Federations also hold promotional examinations on a regular basis.

Section II Kyu Requirements

- Article 1 Kyu rank has six levels from 6 kyu to 1 kyu and is awarded according to the candidate's demonstrated ability.
- Article 2 USNF Kyu Examiners shall be approved by the USNF Board of Directors from a list of candidates submitted by the USNF Regional Federations at the start of each fiscal year. Minimum requirements for Kyu Examiners shall include: (1) Third Dan or higher in rank; (2) participation in one USNF seminar or USNF sanctioned seminar outside of the candidate's regional federation in the last two years; and (3) participation in one USNF or INF refereeing seminar in the last two years. The list of approved USNF Kyu examiners will be published by the USNF office in the first month of each fiscal year.
- Article 3 A Kyu Examination Panel shall consist of a minimum of three examiners from the current approved USNF Kyu Examiners list. All decisions require approval of a majority of the Panel. The examiner with the most seniority in rank serves as the chief examiner of the Panel.
- Article 4 Each affiliated regional federation is authorized to administer Kyu Promotional Examinations, provided the examination is authorized by the USNF President and notification is given to the USNF Executive Secretary at least 30 days prior to the scheduled examination date. This examination will be listed in the USNF Calendar as soon as possible.
- Article 5 The technical requirements for Kyu ranks are listed in Appendix C. At the request of a regional federation president, the Shogo Recommendation Committee may waive the Waiting Period for a kyu rank for a specific individual.

Section III Dan Requirements

- Article 1 Dan rank has five levels from Shodan (1 dan) to Godan (5 dan) and is awarded by the AJNF according to the candidate's demonstrated ability.
- Article 2 A Dan Examination Panel must be formed in accordance with the Ranking Regulations for Dan Testing (Appendix B). Examiners shall be selected from the current approved USNF Kyu Examiners list. All decisions for Shodan thru Sandan promotion require approval of a majority of the Panel. The examiner with the most seniority in rank serves as the chief examiner of the Panel.
- Article 3 Each affiliated regional federation is authorized to administer Dan Promotional Examinations once a year up to Nidan, provided the examination is authorized by the USNF President and notification is given to the USNF Executive Secretary at least 30 days prior to the scheduled examination date. This examination will be listed in the USNF Calendar as soon as possible.
- Article 4 The technical requirements for Dan ranks are listed in Appendix D.

Section IV Shogo Recommendation Committee

- Article 1 The President of the USNF authorizes the USNF Shogo Recommendation Committee to make decisions concerning the recommendation of USNF members for Godan (5-dan), Renshi, and Kyoshi.
- Article 2 The Shogo Recommendation Committee shall be comprised of all the USNF members who hold any of the shogo titles. The chairman of the Shogo Recommendation Committee shall be the member of the committee holding the most senior Shogo title for the longest period of time.
- Article 3 A committee member may not deliberate on their own application.
- Article 4 The Shogo Recommendation Committee shall be responsible for guiding, advising, and developing prospective godan and shogo candidates among the USNF members.
- Article 5 The Shogo Recommendation Committee shall decide all procedures for making its recommendation(s), including the practical performance and essay of any prospective candidates, and any paper forms required from the candidate or the candidate's regional federation. The decision to recommend a USNF member to the AJNF for consideration for godan (5-dan) or a shogo title must be made by a two-thirds majority of the Shogo Recommendation Committee.
- Article 6 The application may be submitted at any time of the year by regional federations, but no later than 60 days prior to the biannual USNF tests. The practical performance and essay shall be held in conjunction with the biannual USNF testing.
- Article 7 The Hanshi Shogo is awarded by the All Japan Naginata Federation (AJNF). Should the AJNF recommend a USNF member for Hanshi, this committee will support the recommendation.
- Article 8 Following the submission of the formal application to the All Japan Naginata Federation, a candidate's regional office may request a copy of the application as submitted.

Section V Examination Fee Structure

- Article 1 The USNF kyu examination fee is $20.00. The kyu rank certificate fee is $20.00. Additional shipping and handling fees may be assessed on an as-needed basis to cover additional mailing costs for rank certificates mailed outside the United States.
- Article 2 The kyu fee structure may be modified by the USNF Board of Directors as required, without amending these Regulations.
- Article 3 The fee structure for dan and shogo ranks is set by the AJNF.
